A Letter to Mom

Dear Mom,

How are you doing in Singapore? Are you still busy at work? Dad and I miss you a lot. We are fine here. Don't worry about us. We read and play sports together. We do housework together, too. Dad mops the floor, and I do the dishes every day. Dad is a great cook. He really takes good care of me. Today is May thirteenth, and it is also Mother's Day. In my eyes, Dad is a superdad, and you are a supermom. Thanks for everything. Happy Mother's Day!

Love,

John

Hong Kong

Then and Now

Take a look at the two photos, and you can see the big changes in Hong Kong.

Hong Kong was a fishing town many years ago. There were no tall buildings, and there were only small houses. A lot of people there were fishermen. There weren't many visitors in the town, and there weren't many activities for visitors, either.

Now, Hong Kong is a rich city. There are a lot of tall buildings. A lot of people in Hong Kong are businessmen. Many people around the world visit this city, and they do many things here. For example, they eat great food in nice restaurants, watch shows, buy gifts, and visit old streets.
