Tony and his classmates played basketball in the playground during the PE class this afternoon. After the PE class, Tony went back to his classroom and didn't find his wallet in the desk. Someone stole his wallet! Tony felt angry and told it to his teacher, Miss Chen.

Miss Chen talked to the whole class. She said, "Stealing isn't right. If you do it, please return Tony's wallet to him privately. I won't punish you. Everybody makes mistakes. I hope you won't do that again."

However, no one returned Tony's wallet to him. Luckily, Miss Chen found a trash bag outside of the classroom and inside was Tony's wallet! Tony was very happy to get his wallet back and thanked Miss Chen for her help. He also learned a lesson: Never leave your valuable things behind you.

Alice runs a bookstore, and her husband, Bill, is an English teacher. They both enjoy nature. They are busy, so they seldom have time to take a trip. Luckily, this summer, they did. They went to Kenting together and stayed there for three days. On the first day, they visited Kenting National Park. They hiked in the forest and saw some beautiful flowers and birds. That night, they camped at the beach. They chatted all night under the moonlight. The next day, they went to the National Museum of Marine Biology and Aquarium. They saw many sea animals there for the first time. The last day, they went for a bike ride. They also had lots of pictures. Alice made some handmade cards for her family and friends at a local store. In the evening, they enjoyed a big dinner at a famous seafood restaurant. After dinner, they went back home by train. It was a wonderful trip, and they had great fun.
