On this day, many stores open very early, often at 4 a.m., or earlier, and offer promotional sales to start the shopping season. Black Friday is not really a holiday, but most workers can get one day off to buy what they need. To buy something cheaper, many people will get in line very early in front of the stores. And now, companies or stores offer another shopping chance — just sit in front of the computer and click the mouse. "Cyber Monday" becomes one of the biggest online shopping days of the year.

2 Dear Diary,

This is the second day of my trip to Taiwan and I am having so much fun! Taiwan is really a special place.

Today I went to a famous night market with my parents and ate lots of delicious food. I tried bubble tea at a stand called "Q World". I asked the owner of the stand what Q means and she told me that Q is a special texture. It means soft and chewy.

After having the bubble tea, we went to buy some Korean Rice Cakes. "Hot, Q Korean Rice Cakes!" the owner of the stand was calling out. It seems that food that can be described as Q is also from Asian countries.

I like the texture "Q" so much that I bought another bubble tea. My parents didn't like the drink because they thought it was quite strange. I will share this special experience with my friends when I get back to America!

Love,

Abigail
