Two young brothers, Ray and James, got up to play at night when their parents were sleeping. They felt bored, so they started to play a game of hide-and-peek. Ray turned his head to the wall and started to count numbers. "Are you ready? I'm coming," said Ray, and he went looking for James. He looked all the places in the house, inside every big drawer, behind every door, and under all the beds, but he couldn't find James.

Then he heard a strange sound coming from the wardrobe. Ray was sure that he already looked inside, but he still went there and asked, "Come out, James! I got you!" There was no sound, so he opened the door and tried to find James behind the clothes. He looked down but didn't see any feet. He then stood up and tried to find James in the clothes. Suddenly, a small, white, icy cold hand touched his wrist and tried to pull him into the wardrobe.

"Couldn't you find me? I was in the kitchen!" James said behind Ray. Ray was so scared because the icy cold hand was still pulling him hard. James also saw the white hand. The brothers screamed and ran out the room.

F is for Fairtrade, but what is Fairtrade?

Fairtrade is an easy but important idea. It's all about giving people who produce the things you buy a fair price for their work. Lots of people in poor countries work long hours for very low pay. Often, only very little money can finally go to the poor's hands. Did you know nearly half the people in the world live on less than 80 NT dollars a day?

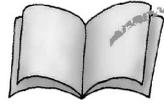

The Fairtrade Foundation was set up to help these producers in poor countries to get a fair price for their work. When you buy something with a Fairtrade logo on it, you know that a fair amount of money is going to the poor directly. There are many everyday goods like food, tea, coffee, sugar, and fruits that you can buy with Fairtrade. Don't forget to check on the logo.

- ◇ Fairtrade goods are sold in over 120 countries.
- ◇ The first Fairtrade product was chocolate bars.
- ◇ Fairtrade goods come from over 70 different countries around the world.
