M: Yours is smaller, and it's right there on the sofa.

W: Really? Oh, yeah. This one is bigger. I'm so sorry.

Q: What do we know from the dialogue?

12.

B: Kathy, the chicken soup smells so good. Can I try some?

G: Sure. Here you go. How does it taste?

B: It tastes great! Can I have some more?

G: Sorry, no. This is my lunch. You can buy your own at the stand over there.

B: Oh, I see.

Q: What may the boy do next?

13.

G: Look at this pink dress. It's so pretty!

B: Yes, it is. But look at the red and the white ones. They are good, too.

G: Wow. They are even more beautiful. What should I do? I don't have enough money to buy them all.

B: Hmm.... The pink dress may be a better choice for you. It's cheaper. And you don't have any pink dresses at home.

Q: Why may the pink dress be a good choice for the girl?

14.

Once there was a donkey. He was old and weak from years of hard work. He knew something bad was coming, so he ran away. He thought, "I'll go to Bremen and be a town musician."

On the road, the donkey met a dog. He also ran away because he was too old to hunt and his owner wanted to kill him. So, the donkey invited the dog to join him.

Soon, an old cat and rooster joined them. They were in the same boat as the donkey and dog.

Q: What does "in the same boat" mean?

15.

One night, the animals came across a lighted house in the woods. Through the window, the donkey saw a table with lots of food. He also saw thieves enjoying themselves.

The group wanted all that. So, the donkey stood with his front feet on the window. The dog got on his back, the cat got on the dog, and the rooster got on the cat's head.

Then, each one performed its animal sounds, and they burst through the window. That frightened the thieves, and they ran out of the house.

Q: Which is true?
